"KING OF WHITE SLAVERS" BEGINS LONG JAIL TERM

(By Associated Press.)
BEUTHEN, Germany, April 10.—Samuel Lubelski, a Russian, known as the "King of the White Slavers," was taken from here today to commence serving a sentence of nine years in prison for engaging in the white slave traffic. He was also convicted of bribing the border police and of having smuggled hundreds of persons across the border to enable them to migrate to America. It is estimated that Lubelski has during his career shipped over 200 Russian and Polish girls, ignorant of their intended fate, to North and South American ports for immoral purposes. Although the state's attorney recommended only six years' imprisonment for Lubelski, the court considered his crimes to be of such a heinous character that the judges added three years and $3000 fine.

LACK OF SANITARY MEASURES BRING DEATH TO HOME

Shocking are the revelations as contained in the statement made recently by a very prominent physician of Tonopah that there is no way to calculate the number of deaths directly attributable to the cesspools and privy vaults of this town. He quoted from statistics, bearing on the former conditions in Cuba, Panama and the present conditions in some of the South American countries, in which the breeding and feeding places of flies and mosquitoes are proven to be stagnant ponds, water-holes, potted waters, cesspools and vaults.

It was further stated by this physician that flies feed and breed in the vaults of this town only to light upon the food afterwards eaten by both infant and adult. The transmission of any number of diseases are directly traceable to this manner of transmitting bacteria, especially is this true as to the baby in arms. There is no screening so effectual as to absolutely free the house from flies and one of these dreaded messengers of death stalking upon baby's food and even into its mouth has robbed many a mother of her loved ones only too often.

The doctor in question even went so far as to say that he alone could testify to the untimely death of many an adult and any number of infants who would otherwise still be among the living were it not for the preponderance of vaults and cesspools in our town.

SCENE FROM "BETWEEN SAVAGE AND TIGER."

SAVAGE AND TIGER AT THE PASTIME

George Kleine's production of the Cines photo drama, "Between Savage and Tiger," is a complete change from anything he has ever presented and affords a vivid and striking contrast to "Quo Vadis," "The Last Days of Pompeii" and "Antony and Cleopatra." It serves to show that the Cines company of Italy can handle modern subjects with the same charming artistic finish that characterizes all of their classic productions.

"Between Savage and Tiger" is a tale of adventure and romance in the jungles of India and abounds in thrilling and exciting scenes in which man-eating tigers, water-buffalo, antelope, elephants and other wild animals play a conspicuous part. The story tells of a young officer who is court-martialed and dismissed from the army for absenting himself from his post of duty without leave, to visit a sick wife and child. He wanders to India and is captured by a tribe of savages who marvel at his wonderful power as a marksmen in killing tigers and other animals that have been annoying the tribe. While in captivity, the daughter of the chief falls in love with him and there are other reasons for holding him prisoner. Meanwhile his wife and child set out to find him and while at sea are shipwrecked by the burning of the vessel. They manage to reach land through the aid of a faithful old sailor. They happen to land on the shores of India and after many adventures reach the tribe where, the husband and father is held captive. The union is happy, but is clouded by the jealousy of the chief's daughter, who realizes there is no hope for her with the young officer's affections. The balance of the story has to do with the adventures that befall the little family in their efforts to escape to civilization once more. The photo drama is divided into six parts and has enough thrills in it to supply plots for half a dozen stories or stage melodramas. Mr. Kleine's production of "Between Savage and Tiger" will be seen ere for the first time at the Pastime Theater Tuesday afternoon and evening, with a special matinee price of ten cents for children.

AMUSEMENTS

K. OF C. BENEFIT.

Reserved seats for "Capt. Racket" are reported to be going pretty fast.

This strong comedy will be given at the Nevada Theatre next Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. The performance is under the directorship of Prof. J. D. Scott, and the performers are all Tonopah people, who have worked diligently for several weeks in rehearsals, and who, it is said, have now reached a standard of excellence and perfection seldom reached by amateurs.

The cast includes these well known young ladies and gentlemen: Thos. J. Dwyer, Chas. A. Smith, J. D. Scott, Frank P. Kerns, Tom Gibbons, Miss Kelly, Mrs. Scott and Miss Deagan.

Messrs. Fife and Parker will furnish the orchestral music.

Between the first and second acts Miss Deagan will render a vocal solo.

Between the second and third acts something unique in the way of a dance by four young ladies will be given under the direction of Miss Kelly, the ladies taking part being Miss Hafferton, Miss Magnix, Mrs. Reese and Miss Sullivan.

Curtain rises promptly at 8:30.

BUTLER THEATER.

A very interesting programme will be shown at the Butler this evening, consisting of four reels, as follows:

"Pathe Weekly of Current Events," which is always interesting; a two-reel Kalen drama, "The Shadow," featuring Alice Joyce and Tom Moore. This is a pretty, graceful picture with plenty of action and no dragging. One can see in it, too, as in the eye-glasses left behind, an attempt to make it smooth and natural; it will hold interest, and with its general grace, perfect settings and lifelike photography, makes it a very pleasing picture. An Edison comedy, "Andy Plays Hero," nothing is too much for Andy; he even consents to don the little girl's clothes to save her from her uncle, who has designs on her inheritance; when Uncle discovers the deception Andy has a narrow escape from his wrath.

PASTIME THEATER

A deluge of humanity last evening paid an apparently just tribute to the re-enactment of the "Battle of Waterloo" at the Pastime theater.

Tremendously beautiful in detail and absorbing in wonderful scenic effects, the battle is described edgily exciting. Because of historical data explanatory in conjunction with the recital of this story a more valuable review is contained. The programme will be repeated this evening. Comments last evening were more than friendly and it is more than likely that a large audience will greet the repeating tonight of the "Battle."

In all European countries except Russia the sugar beet production last year was one of the greatest on record.
